Ike Refuses Senate Group Secret Reports

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democrat leader Lyndon B. Johnson said today that President Eisenhower has refused flatly to give Senate preparedness investigators the secret Gaither report on the nation's defenses.

Johnson, chairman of the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee, made public a letter from the President saying that "I cannot properly" furnish the so-called Killian and Gaither reports to the senators or release them for publication.

"THROUGHOUT OUR history the President has withheld information whenever he found that what was sought was confidential or that it would jeopardize the nation's safety or the proper functioning of our government," the President said.

The President added that he considered it "improper and unwise for me to violate the confidence of the advisory relationships that has existed between me" and the Killian and Gaither committees.

EISENHOWER SAID that the reports now are documents of the National Security Council and "never have the documents of this council been furnished to Congress."

The Gaither report is understood to have warned that the U.S. is in the gravest danger in its history.

PLAYHOUSE ASKS RETURN OF POSTERS FOR 'PINK BURRO'

Playhouse officials today appealed for help in locating their display posters for their current play at the Playhouse, "The Pink Burro."

The posters were in a car stolen here Sunday night, and discarded somewhere.

Anyone finding the posters is asked to call the Playhouse FA 4-2626, or the Playhouse Guild office, FA 4-9624.

City Hails New Court Decision

City Attorney Jerry Bunker today declared that Palm Springs Right-to-Work law may possibly not be needed because of an opinion by the State Supreme Court, which declared it illegal to picket for a closed shop.

The statement, released today by Bunker explains that only last week the Fourth District Court of Appeals declared the Palm Springs Right-to-Work ordinance unconstitutional by upholding the finding of the Riverside County Superior Court.

IT ADDED THAT later, in a decision by the state's high court, in a case entitled "Garmon vs. San Diego Building Trades Council" that the court found "the law now to be that unless the labor union was representing the employees of an organization it was improper for a labor union to picket in order to force the employer to sign a closed shop agreement."

Based upon this late case, the city indicated that it would proceed to ask for a "rehearing before the District Court of Appeals to show that court that the law has been changed since the rendering of its decision, and it must change its opinion in accordance with the dictates of the Supreme Court of the State."

"IT MAY WELL BE," explained Bunker, "that we will not need our Right-to-Work law if the ultimate decision in this matter is that State law covers the prohibition against picketing for a closed shop."

"No doubt the recent Supreme Court decision will be appealed to the United States Supreme Court, so that it is too early at this date for great exaltation," concluded Bunker.

Desert Area Car Insurance Rates Show Large Increase

Sweeping increases for 1958 auto insurance rates, some running as high as 78 per cent in the desert area, went into effect throughout California today.

Substantial rate hikes for liability insurance were posted by the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and raises for auto damage insurance were charted by the National Automobile Underwriters Association.

FOR THE PALM SPRINGS resort area, the two rating organizations set increases ranging from $5 for minimum liability coverage to $27 for auto material damage policies. A Village insurance agent reported today.

The increased rates for material damage coverage, involving comprehensive (windstorm damage, fire and theft) policies, ranged about 78 per cent above last year's schedule of an average $34.

Broken down into specific categories, the new rate schedule shows that an adult (over 25 years) driver can expect to pay $45 for basic liability coverage this year, representing an increase of 12 1/2 per cent over last year's rate of $40.

THE SAME DRIVER will now also pay 12 1/2 per cent more for collision damage insurance ($50 deductible).

But the big bite comes in comprehensive coverage, which, as in the case of San Francisco, increased as much as three times the new figure posted for east Riverside County.

THE OFFICIAL statement accused Russia of "incredible" arrogance and warned of Russia's "imperialistic aggressive designs" in the Middle East.

DULLES SAID "THE President has authorized me to express the deep concern of the United States for the security and economic development of this part of the Free World, and our constant and unwavering support for the principles of collective security symbolized by the Baghdad pact."

"The United States is fully conscious of the threat to the area which comes from the north," he said. "Formerly it was the threat of Czarist imperialism. Now it is the threat of Communist imperialism, again expressed only yesterday by the Soviet Union," Dulles said.

Besides attending the pact meeting, Dulles will hold "solidarity" meetings in Morocco, Iran and Turkey before returning here Feb. 1.

Widespread Hunt Resumes Today for Missing Plane

A widespread search resumed today for a light plane missing since Saturday on a flight from Palm Springs to Long Beach.

Search planes and ground parties failed Tuesday to find any trace of the missing single-engine Tri-pacer with four persons aboard. The Civil Air Patrol said some 150 square miles of the rugged San Bernardino and Santa Ana Mountains had been covered in the hunt.

REPORTED ABOARD the craft when it took off from here, were the pilot, Harold A. McClintock, 46, a Long Beach pharmacist; his wife, Claire, 40, employed by the Long Beach Board of Education; Kenneth Casey, 24, a Long Beach collection agency employee, and James Morris Peterson, 22, a Long Beach City College student.

The 22 CAP and sheriff's search planes had to abandon the search temporarily Monday because of extreme turbulence over the area.

THE SEARCH HAS been centered on the eastern and western slopes of 11,465-foot Mt. San Geronimo in San Bernardino County on the basis of information that McClintock had indicated he might return to Long Beach by way of Big Bear or through Yucca Valley.

WHAT PALM SPRINGS DOES TO NATO could very well title this picture of six young men from six countries, members of a NATO briefing team, who relaxed in Palm Springs this weekend. The briefing team was here at the Desert Inn with Admiral Gerald Wright, Supreme Allied Commander of the Atlantic. They are from the first SACLANT headquarters in the United States and flew to the West Coast to make a presentation to the School of International Relations at USC and to Riverside to make another presentation to the Riverside and Coronado Navy Council. On Sunday they visited the Salton Sea and the Joshua National Monument on a tour arranged by Max Goodland, and are pictured relaxing at the Goodland home on Calle Felicia. They were guests at the Desert Inn of Capt. Horace Brown, president of the Beverly Hills Navy League. Pictured, from left, Lt. Commander Peter F. L. Ross of the Royal Canadian Navy; Lt. Worst Storm This Winter Continues March Eastward

Dulles Warns Middle East Of Red Aims

Charges Russia Wants to Establish Communist Bloc

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today warned the Middle East that Russia is trying to add that area to the Communist bloc.

Dulles' warning came after a conference with President Eisenhower. The secretary of state leaves this afternoon for Ankara, Turkey, to attend a meeting of the anti-Communist Middle East nations in the Baghdad pact.

EARLIER TODAY the State Department branded as "totally false" Soviet charges that the U.S. is going to force the Baghdad nations—Iran, Turkey, Iraq and Pakistan, plus Britain—to accept American missile bases.

The official statement accused Russia of "incredible" arrogance and warned of Russia's "imperialistic aggressive designs" in the Middle East.

DULLES SAID "THE President has authorized me to express the deep concern of the United States for the security and economic development of this part of the Free World, and our constant and unwavering support for the principles of collective security symbolized by the Baghdad pact."

"The United States is fully conscious of the threat to the area which comes from the north," he said. "Formerly it was the threat of Czarist imperialism. Now it is the threat of Communist imperialism, again expressed only yesterday by the Soviet Union," Dulles said.

Besides attending the pact meeting, Dulles will hold "solidarity" meetings in Morocco, Iran and Turkey before returning here Feb. 1.

Desert Area Junior College Approved by 9 to 1 Margin

California's newest junior college district bounced into existence as the promising offspring of two school districts today as election officials tabulated an overwhelming majority of votes authorizing its creation.

Despite yesterday's light turnout from voters in an area stretching from Desert Hot Springs to Eagle Mountain, the new desert area college district emerged from the polls with a thumping nine-to-one margin of approval.

Officials at 17 polling places reported that 3,159, or 33 per cent, of a potential balloting force of approximately 13,000 registered voters turned out for the election promoted by the joint Palm Springs Unified and Coachella Valley Union High School districts.

Unofficial returns this morning showed that 2,849 ballots were marked for approval of the college district while only 310 were counted as "no" votes.

NOW AWAITING the second step towards creation of an operational junior college—election of a district governing board—Palm Springs and Coachella Valley administrators jubilantly greeted reports of the successful election.

Palm Springs Schools Supt. Wallace Muelder noted that he was "highly gratified" to learn of the "resounding majority" by which voters endorsed the college district.

"I think the voters of the district can anticipate that, after three or four years, they will have a junior college with a potential of being second to none," Muelder said.

MUELDER BASED his enthusiastic outlook on the resources of the embryonic district, which embraces territory containing property evaluated in excess of $46 million and rates near the top, in girth, of all California junior districts.

Mueider also felt that the high margin of affirmative votes reflected a "true picture" of the "feeling of district residents."

Gail Brumwell, superintendent of the Coachella Valley district, echoed Muelder's opinion and felt that approval of the district "is one of the best things that ever happened to Coachella Valley education."

"THERE CAN BE no progress without vision," Brumwell noted, "and I think that the election results demonstrate the length of vision of the voters."

Mueider said that plans for election of a district board of trustees will be formulated after ballots are canvassed by the County Board of Education this week. Earliest possible election date is April 15, but Muelder was doubtful that the election would be called that soon.

He said the election would probably take place in May, possibly in conjunction with election of regular school board members on May 20.

MUELDER POINTED out that the district becomes officially effective when it goes on the tax rolls July 1. However, he explained that it is now effective for "certain purposes," such as the upcoming board election.

"There is a reasonable possibility that the college will open its doors by September, 1960," Muelder said, "but it will be more likely be 1961 before it is in actual operation. It should be in full swing by 1965."

FIRST DUTIES of the new governing board will be naming of the college and location of a site. School board members who championed the new district feel that a point midway between the two districts is most suitable.

Voting, by precincts, in yesterday's election was unofficially tabulated as follows:

A GOVERNMENT communique issued in Caracas Tuesday night said armed police patrols, secret police and national guardsmen had brought the riots under control, but other sources indicated trouble was spreading throughout the country.

Reports received in Washington said more than 100 persons were injured and approximately 1,000 arrested in the Caracas street fighting. They said the disorders were still underway Tuesday night.

Desert area forecast: Clear today through Thursday. Gusty north winds 20-30 miles an hour at times. Highs today 52-62 upper valleys, 62-72 lower valleys. Slightly warmer Thursday.

Yesterday's high was 68; low, 36.

Hits Midwest With 18-Inch Snowfall

New England To Have Sleet, Gale-Force Winds

By UNITED PRESS

The worst storm of the winter continued its march eastward today, bringing freezing rain and gale-force winds to New England and New York State after dumping up to 18 inches of snow in the Midwest.

The death toll from the three-day midwestern storm rose to 49. Kansas City, Mo., was caught in a 15-inch snowfall. Seven deaths in the Kansas City area were attributed to the storm, the worst in nearly 50 years.

THE SNOW, PILING 18 inches deep at Odessa, Mo., snarled air and ground traffic in many midwestern cities. Some schools and businesses closed.

With the shift of the stormcenter northeastward, the Weather Bureau warned Interior New England and Upper New York State of rains and freezing rains that would coat some areas with a dangerous glaze.

A rush of warm air lifted warnings of eight-inch snows in New England. Boston expected a 50-degree reading during the day.

RAINS WERE heavy and widespread. At Nashua, N.H., flooded streets forced schools to close. In the Midwest, a pulse of cold air followed the snow storm. The temperature drop set off light snows from Michigan and Illinois through the Ohio Valley into Kentucky.

The mercury fell below zero in snow-covered Iowa and Nebraska.

ANOTHER SURGE of cold air also spread light snow near the Canadian border from North Dakota to Michigan.

A United Press count since the start of the storm Monday showed many deaths resulted from heart attacks induced by exertion and stress during the storm.

Illinois reported 11 weather-connected deaths; Indiana 6; Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Missouri 5 each; Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska 4 each; New York and Oklahoma 2 each, and Michigan 1.

The storm, biggest of the season, spent its force in the Midwest Tuesday night, and then moved eastward. A freezing rain during the night made driving treacherous over the higher elevations of New York and New England.

Village Chamber to Hold Annual Dinner Dance, Installation Thursday

The 17th Annual mid-winter dinner dance and installation of officers of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Tennis Club.

Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper has indicated that the installation ceremonies will be very brief, with retiring President Tom Kiley turning over the gavel to President Dewey Metzger.

THE ANNUAL REPORT normally submitted at the dinner will instead be mailed to the entire membership.

Earl Hough, who resigned from the board of directors and has been replaced by William Smith, will be presented with a plaque for his untiring efforts on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce.

WARREN COBLE, president of the Coachella Valley Building Contractors Association, is an appointed member of the Chamber of Commerce and will be installed at the dinner.

According to Cooper, reservations already exceed last year's total attendance and a huge turnout of Chamber members and guests is expected. The price of the dinner including tax and tip is $5 per person and reservations may be made by calling the Chamber offices at FA 4-1577.

Cub Scout Pack Program Set For Friday Night

A joint program for adults and youngsters is planned for the Cub Scout Pack 170 meeting scheduled for 7 p.m., Friday, at Cahulla School cafeteria. Scoutmaster Harry Mohr announced today.

Cub Scouts will see a program of cartoon and educational films, including "The Toymakers," an award-winning motion picture furnished by the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League.

Meanwhile, parents will participate in a discussion on the agenda planned for Boy Scout Month. The program features window display projects for exhibition at Ramon Drug from Feb. 7 to 13 and a potluck dinner to conclude the month's activities.

The public is invited to attend the Friday meeting.

Ramon Rise Application Set For Consideration

Ramon Rise estates application for a commercial zone is scheduled to come up before the City Council Wednesday, but the council is expecting a request that it be kept on the agenda under unfinished business until the Planning Commission has reached a decision on where future neighborhood business districts will be located.

Navy Experts Aid Russians In Ship Repair

MIDWAY ISLAND — U.S. Navy experts worked with Russian crewmen today to repair the freighter General Panfilov, damaged last week by Typhoon Ophelia while sailing from Vancouver, B.C., to Vladivostok with a cargo of grain.

The Panfilov put into this mid-Pacific atoll Tuesday, the first Russian ship ever to touch here. The Navy has ruled the port out of bounds to civilian ships except in emergencies.

ANOTHER RUSSIAN ship, the Odessa, also suffered as a result of the storm. She lay outside the harbor, waiting for heavy seas to subside so she too could put in. Still another freighter, the Ljberian ship Wanderer, ran into further trouble while being towed toward Midway by the Coast Guard cutter Bering Strait.

The Bering Strait took the Wanderer in tow after she lost a propeller in last week's storm. The cable snapped Tuesday night 675 miles north of Midway. Crews of both ships were working to set up a new towline.

AN INSPECTION of the General Panfilov disclosed extensive damage. Heavy seas washed all four lifeboats away. The lifeboat davits were badly smashed and the aft platform on the poopdeck had collapsed.

The grain cargo in the No. 1 and 3 holds was wet and was giving off fumes.

Navy experts were to advise the Russians on welding the decks and on what safety measures to take to minimize the grain fumes.

The skipper of the Panfilov sent a message to his superiors in Vladivostok saying:

"I received excellent attention and cooperation from the pilot and his command. I will inform you later how long it is necessary for me to remain here in order to effect repairs."

Eisenhower Gets Briton's Vote

LONDON — A woman interviewed by a roving BBC television crew on a "seeing eye" program Monday night was asked who was representing Great Britain at the NATO conference in Paris. "President Eisenhower, I suppose," she said.

Citizens for Eisenhower To Have New Chairman

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON — The Republican high command has been informed that the Citizens-for-Eisenhower (CFE) organization will have a new chairman for the 1958 congressional campaign — and, maybe, a somewhat more realistic role in national politics.

The new chairman will be Lloyd MacMahon, a 45-year-old New York lawyer and former assistant U.S. attorney. He was CFE chairman in New York State for the 1956 presidential campaign.

MACMAHON WILL succeed John Reed Kilpatrick who also is chairman of the board of Madison Square Garden in New York City. Gen. Lucius D. Clay has been and probably will continue to be a big wheel in CFE and Thomas E. Stephens, an unofficial but influential White House consultant, is expected to continue to help shape the organization's policies.

CFE has had a spotty record. It has done a professionally successful job of money raising — $5,000,000 in the last three campaigns — despite an amateurish approach to politics which was the despair of realistic Republican politicians.

THE CFE SET-UP was ideal for obtaining funds from individuals who for one reason or another preferred not to contribute directly to Republican Party campaign organizations.

The political pros were saddened by the use to which CFE put its campaign funds, comparatively little of which went to candidates in the form in which it was most welcome and needed. That form, of course, would be in cash or by check of substantial proportions. CFE apparently did not realize the hazards of thumbing into Republican primaries.

THE MANEUVER, however, which most offended many Republican organization workers, right down to the grass roots, was the 1956 effort to prevent the renomination of Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

General Clay generally was accounted the head man in that operation, his stop-Nixon enthusiasm evidently having been fired by a poll which mistakenly came up with the opinion that Nixon would have a liability to President Eisenhower in the 1956 campaign. This same poll produced the names of some alternates, among them Harold E. Stassen.

That may account for the confidence with which Stassen in 1956 assumed public leadership of the stop-Nixon movement, a role he surrendered at the 1956 San Francisco convention just in time to speak in favor of Nixon's renomination.

INSURANCE RATES

A MOTORIST driving, say, a three-year-old car will find his new premiums have increased an average of from $22 up for comprehensive, $2 and up for collision ($109 deductible) and about $17 for liability, if he carries a $25,000-$50,000 PL and PD policy.

Specific figures may vary slightly depending on the type and nature of insurance coverage and the limits of coverage, it was explained by local insurance agents, but this was presented as a fair picture of what Mr. Average Motorist can expect to pay for his 1958 insurance policies.

THE SAME VIEW is reflected in other parts of the state — and, in some instances, is highly magnified. In San Francisco, for instance, a juvenile driver will pay $410 for his first year of coverage on an inexpensive new car.

In Los Angeles County, the comprehensive and collision ($50 deductible) rate for adults increased $12 while the liability premiums went up an average $13.

Prosperous West Berlin Is Putting Red Propaganda to Its Greatest Test in World

(Editor's note: Phil Newsom, United Press foreign news editor, is on a tour of U.P. bureaus in Western Europe.)

By PHIL NEWSOM

United Press Staff Correspondent BERLIN — Prosperous West Berlin is putting Communist propaganda to its greatest test.

Just inside East Berlin, and within sight of the jagged ruins of Hitler's Chancellery, a sign over the Communist Youth Movement building proclaims:

"Youth is for Socialism—that is Germany's future."

BUT THOUSANDS of East Germans living in rubble and the gray world of Communism say: "What future?"

At the rate of more than 500 per day they risk Communism imprisonment to pour into West Berlin along one of the few routes left open for escape to the West. Failure could mean up to three years in prison.

A thin, jagged, at times almost invisible line, eight miles long running roughly southeast to northwest, separates Berlin into Communist East and the capitalistic West.

IT CREATES OUT of West Germany an island 110 miles inside Communist East Germany. It also creates an irritant which not even the best Communist propagandists can explain away.

Fort thousand East Germans work daily in West Berlin. No propaganda can erase for them the glittering West Berlin shops, the restaurants, the new automobiles and the flashing neon signs.

West Berliners never forget their divided city or their divided country. They support passionately the hard line against Communism.

BUT IN THE 12 and one-half years since World War II, West Berliners have rebuilt their city from rubble, recaptured their gaiety and achieved a tranquility seemingly impossible in the face of the Communist menace surrounding them.

Three 20-mile-wide air corridors connect West Berlin with West Germany. They are tiny cracks in the Iron Curtain, patrolled on either side by Communist Mig jet fighters.

West Berlin's impact makes itself felt almost as soon as the big airplane sweeps into Tempelhof Airport, its wing tips almost seemingly to brush apartment houses on either side.

THERE IS STILL war damage here. But each year West Berliners clear more debris and put up more buildings than has been accomplished by the Communists in all the years since the war.

Empty blocks still appear like gaping teeth. The broken steeple and tumbled remnants of the Kaiser Wilhelm Church remain as a grim memorial at the end of the Kurfuerstendamm, West Berlin's smartest shopping street.

There are the pretty girls with smartly clipped french poodles on the end of leashes. There is the hotel doorman who summons the taxi which is more than likely to be a new Mercedes. There is the friendly waiter serving food the equal of any in Europe in a restaurant equally as smart.

THERE ARE THE shops selling everything from automatic washing machines to Persian rugs, from a man's white shirt to the smartest evening gown.

Then there is East Berlin, a city of mile after mile of ruins, of empty streets and silent people, physically divided from West Berlin only by the Brandenburg Gate but a world apart.

Here are the ruins of the Chancellery and nearby a vast field of fallen bricks and broken masonry where only a huge upended rock is a memorial to the bunker.

1957 Grand Jury Files Final Report, Asks Four Changes

In filing the final report of the 1957 Grand Jury, William W. Watson, of Hemet, or foreman, urged that a file be established to contain yearly Grand Jury reports.

"We had to beat a path to the county clerk's office to read past Grand Jury reports," he told the Board of Supervisors, "and it occurs to us a library should be established, so we are placing our reports in the Grand Jury room and suggest use of a legal filing cabinet equipped with a lock."

ALTHOUGH THE report was voluminous, only four matters were stressed by the Grand Jury: abolishment of the air pollution control advisory committee and its replacement by a committee composed of technically and industrially experienced citizens; reorganization of the hospital commission; consideration of the county's withdrawal from the Medical Welfare Plan; and a recommendation that no further construction of buildings at the county hospital be started until a complete reevaluation of the program is conducted.

Dr. John Middleton, chairman of the air pollution control committee and an acknowledged leader in the air pollution control field in this part of the country, told the supervisors this week that the present committee believes its work will not be completed until rules and regulations are finally approved.

HE SAID THAT might be the time to appoint a technical committee to be advisory to the air pollution control officer. The present committee is advisory to the board of supervisors.

"I don't believe it is advisable to dismiss this committee now," agreed Supervisor Paul Anderson.

"We could give consideration to dismissal when the rules and regulations are set up. There is a long way to go yet," said Supervisor George Berkey.

"It's a matter of timing," said Supervisor George Berkey. It is not timely now to even discuss the proposal further. When the rules and regulations are adopted would be a good time."

"THE PRESENT committee represents the taxpayers of the county," said Supervisor Fred McCall, "and I'd hate to see it dissolved leaving us without advice as to development."

"A couple of experts on the committee is enough," said Supervisor William Jones. Dr. Middleton's experience and knowledge is invaluable, but I can't see that the whole committee need be technicians."

"I would like to have a study of the Grand Jury's report as to the air pollution control committee," said Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain. "If their reasons are sound and something should be done, we should do it as quickly as possible."

THE ONLY STATEMENT in the report was as follows: "Since the original exploratory, air pollution control advisory committee has valuably completed its initial responsibility, resulting among other things in the employment by the county of a specialist engineer in this field, the committee should be dissolved and based on the current need, and a new advisory board composed of technically and industrially experienced citizens be established."

The board of supervisors received and accepted the resignation from the committee of its secretary, Mrs. Faith Deuprey of Temescal.

Clarke Pays Half Of Paving Cost

Noel Clarke, has deposited with the city a check for $5,187.50 for his portion for the paving of one-fourth of a mile of Farrell Drive and one-half of a mile of Racquet Club Road in the Ranch Club Estates.

Under an agreement with the city, the subdivider will pay half the cost and the city will pay the other half for the paving of the area.

During the first nine months of New York state's compulsory auto insurance law, the registration plates of nearly 100,000 car-owners were revoked for allowing their liability insurance to lapse.

Silk Termed Reason Why Many People Receive Allergic Reactions From Vaccines, Other 'Biological' Medicines, According to Two New Reports

By DELOS SMITH
United Press Science Editor

NEW YORK — Silk is the reason why some people get allergic reactions from vaccines and other "biological" medicines, according to the scientific solution of a long-standing puzzle in allergy. The silk is the silk through which the vaccines and other "biologicals" were filtered in the process of manufacture. There they picked up the silk "antigen" which sets off an allergic reaction in sensitive persons.

The solution was contained in two reports to the American Academy of Allergy. One investigator found minute amounts of the antigen in Asian flu vaccine and in the Salk polio vaccine of four out of five manufacturers.

THE LATER WAS odd because the procedures for making the Salk vaccine are exceedingly strict and they do not include filtration through silk. However, the investigator, Dr. Monroe Coleman, of the Jewish Hospital, Brooklyn, pointed out that some companies filter distilled water through silk and use this water in making vaccines.

Dr. Coleman was stimulated into an exacting investigation of silk antigens (or lack of it) in the vaccines and biological products of four manufacturers and products of nine others.

THE STIMULATION came from a study by a group of Cleveland doctors headed by Dr. Harold J. Friedman of a boy who had a strange flare-up of long - arrested asthma after receiving the combined vaccine for whooping cough, tetanus, and diphtheria. They traced the flare-up to a silk antigen contained in the vaccine.

Coleman pointed to five recorded cases of "severe immediate allergic reactions" in silk-sensitive persons after vaccinations. He said he knew of five others and estimated there have been "many more whose true nature were not recognized."

HE GRANTED THAT it was not possible to estimate how many people who have one or more allergies are specifically allergic to silk. However, he tested 250 such persons with silk extract and found that 69 were, which is an incidence of 27 per cent.

Two Recent Predictions On Economy Are Refreshing

Refreshing as a draught of cool water on a hot day, were two recent predictions from widely different sources concerning the soundness of our economy and the future well-being of the nation.

On the national level, the Jan. 10 issue of U.S. News & World Report makes a comprehensive comparison of the present decline in business with that of 1929-32, and finds no similarity whatever. An analysis of six major facets of the economic life of America today, compared to then, reveals the following:

FEDERAL SPENDING—Now, $1 out of every $5 of national income—then, $1 in $29.

SAVINGS AND LOAN ACCOUNTS—Now, insured up to $10,000—then, no insurance or protection against loss.

FARM PRICES—now, Government supported—then, no protection against the constant threat of collapse.

OLD PEOPLE—Now, millions in company pensions, plus government insurance—then, few company pensions, no government insurance.

MORTGAGES—Now, 15 to 30 years with payments like rent—then, 3 to 5 year mortgages, and not always renewable.

GOVERNMENT POLICY—Now, Government committed by law to seek full employment—then, Government played only minimum role in the economy.

On the State level, Clive Graham, newly installed president of the California Real Estate Association had this to say at his installation held in Long Beach last week.

There soon will be:
Construction of two and one-quarter million homes a year by the housing industry.

A gross national product of one trillion as compared to the present 435 million.

A per capita real income rise from $1,708 to more than $2,800.

More leisure time and more money to spend on non-essentials, thanks to new techniques and better machinery.

Farm production of one-third more food than today, with 40 per cent fewer workers.

An average weekly earning of $185 for a factory worker, compared with today's $84

An average work-week of four days. As many three-car families as there are two-car families today.

Ten to twelve millions cars a year produced by the automobile industry.

"Within the next 25 years there is every prospect that the standard of living will increase by more than 50 per cent," said Graham. "This will be remarkable in view of the fact that America probably will be feeding, clothing, housing, educating, and entertaining 40 per cent more people than now."

We believe it very encouraging that there are those still left who refuse to believe that the country is about to go to hell in a wheelbarrow.

For Japan and China--Gratitude

SINGAPORE—"The Japanese invasion," said the black-haired, bespectacled little man at the head of the conference table, "was a blessing in disguise. Without it we would be just where we were."

This man is Chief Minister Lim Yew Lock of Singapore. His background is important. He is the 43-year-old labor leader who, since 1955, has headed the first elective government of this Crown Colony of Great Britain. He is a product of an American grant which enabled him to study labor organization in the U.S. He spoke the above-cited words while holding a press conference in English, for our group of traveling newsmen.

IN SHORT, First Minister Lim is an educated, popular, modern, democratic Oriental who is trying to find a way to govern a province which lies in the path of onrushing Communism. Is he grateful for American aid? For British training in government? For the SEATO and ANZUS defense pacts?

No, he is primarily grateful to Japan for loosening the hold of the Western empire upon this region. Without the blows which imperialism struck against the United States, Britain, France and the Netherlands, the Far East peoples—Mr. Lim was saying—would be just where they were before Pearl Harbor.

THERE IS ANOTHER Oriental power, as it seems to a visiting reporter, to whom the Southeast Asian peoples are grateful. It is Red China. They are not so outspoken about this, at least, not outspoken to Americans and British. But Europeans who run the businesses here know of this grateful feeling to the Communist colossus in the north. They discuss it with apprehension, as well they might.

The Singapore population is 80 per cent Chinese. Their feeling toward Red China is nationalistic. They are proud that their one-divided and widely-despised country has been able to establish a big, strong government. They carry an elation from the Korean War when Red China fared not too badly against American troops.

They see pictures and read news stories in the Communist papers about a new bridge or a new steel plant built in China. They know there is hunger, cruelty, misrule and bureaucracy. All these things were there before; they seem to have been in China forever. But now—there's a national pride.

MANY CHINESE in Singapore are two to four generations removed from China. Many have no immediate family ties up north. A great number, thinking of their prospering enterprises in Singapore, have sided with the Western world. Still, there is this story which was told me today of an Overseas Chinese who said: "I am a Ph.D. and a millionaire. Before World War II when I got in line, the Europeans and Americans would be first. The Japanese would be next because of the Russo-Japanese war in 1901. As a Chinese I was last. But not so today. I move to the head of the line."

CHINA AND JAPAN, except to Western ears, do not sound like unnatural names for leaders of Far East peoples. The Japs, holding off the Russians with one hand, were strong enough to drive the British, French and Dutch from the Orient in the 1940's. Only American air-sea power stuck the little European flags back in the maps of Southeast Asia, and today most of the flags are uprooted again.

China, aided by America's fear of using full strength, consolidated herself through Communism and advanced half-way along the Korean Peninsula. The chance by now is gone, if it ever existed, for American power to crush China as it had previously crushed Japan.

THE AMERICAN foreign policy in Southeast Asia is for local Democratic governments to find their legs behind the shield of the SEATO and ANZUS defense pacts. But, unfortunately, it is not enough mere; to draw up liberal constitutions and hold elections. The new countries will not survive in the squalor and hunger which prevail almost everywhere.

In order to raise the living standards, a vast industrialization both of mechanized agriculture and consumer-goods plants must be set in motion. It is far too big a program for U.S. foreign aid. The only hope from the West is that private enterprise will be attracted here with training schools and plants. If the business risk is not sound—and who can seriously urge that it is sound?—then the teachers and machinery will come from Red China.

This is not what Americans like to hear about the Orient. We American reporters have tried in daily interviews to get some convincingly cheerful responses. We are not having much luck.

'Why Don't You Show Imagination Like That?'

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

Well, of all things!
THIS is Palm Springs?

No wonder the man was surprised. It was the first time he had a chance for a leisurely look at the Village in nine years after having spent 12 years before leaving.

WAL SPALDING (remember him?) is whom I am talking about.

Wal used to run a western wear shop in the 200 block on the east side of Palm Canyon Drive.

He came here in the late 30s and left in 1949.

Until last weekend, the only time he had seen Palm Springs since then was on a trip through town with friends on his way to the Colorado River for a fishing trip.

"They were in such a hurry," he said, "they gave me only a couple of minutes to run into the Dunes which, as you know, was practically my neighbor in the old days."

So all he saw of Palm Springs then was Palm Canyon Drive and Highway 111.

BUT THIS VISIT he's going to look it over. Take his time and really see all of the remarkable changes and growth in the past nine years.

Spalding now runs an advertising and publicity bureau in Santa Ana. But still finds Palm Springs a big help.

HE TOLD ME he needed a picture, on one occasion, for an advertising layout. He couldn't find an appropriate one in his Santa Ana files but remembered one in his collection of Palm Springs pictures which he had at home.

"I went home to get it," he said, "but didn't get back to the office for two days. I found what I wanted, all right, but I saw so many old pictures of the days here which just kept me sitting on the floor, looking at them and reminiscing."

"BY THE WAY, there was one of you, too. With Joe Butler and me."

"The lines under it said 'The trio that started Western Week.' That was fun. Remember?"

Spalding was an enthusiastic member of Los Comrades Club which took Western Week under its wing and put it across.

"But, wow, what a town! It really has gone to town since I was here."

WHAT A TOWN, is right. Where else could you find three major golf tournaments in six days?

The biggest names of golfdom and the biggest names in the entertainment world, all available at a modest gallery fee?

Three lush courses. Indian Wells Tuesday, Thunderbird tomorrow through Sunday and our newest, El Dorado, next Monday.

Tamarisk is scheduling some big ones, too, and after that, the state's oldest amateur tournament at O'Donnell's.

We really are the Winter Golf Capital of the World.

Breakfast this morning on the open deck of the Hotel Los Flamingos in Acapulco, Mexico. Great platters of fresh pineapple and oranges, a thousand feet high looking over the Pacific.

The air is like cool silk. Rain clouds over the sea and the mountains.

Big green bunches of coconuts hang in the curving coco palms. If you like, an Acapulco boy will shiny up and chop down half a dozen with a three-foot machete. They chop the top off, put some ice and dark Mexican rum in the clear coconut milk.

"More hot coffee, señor?" "Heavenly days!"

LAST NIGHT we all went over to La Perla at the Hotel Mirador, Acapulco's plush night spot.

The multi-decks hang over a sea inlet. At certain hours, brown-skinned Acapulco boys climb the cliffs and make the scary dive into the water. The orchestra plays the music of Augustin Lara. And curried chicken is served in coconut shells.

THE NEWEST hotel is the elegant Pierre-Marques. Built by Paul Getty, the California oil man who recently got himself a good deal of publicity as the richest man in the world.

Getty, they tell me, has never been to Acapulco. And his reasons for putting $3,000,000 in to the Pierre-Marques are as mysterious as the man himself.

THIS HAS BEEN an off season for Acapulco. Rain has rinsed all Mexico for the past two weeks. Acapulco has had its share.

The other day a mild earthquake rumbled under the town. Nothing collapsed except a few newspaper copydesks who slumped headlines on the affair—much to the dismay of the Acapulcenses.

About twice a day, Acapulco people buttonhole me over the morning coffee and demand a retraction.

"If Hogan wanted me to appear he could have asked me. I would have cooperated willingly but after he gave me the blast, let him drop dead."

EARL WILSON:

All These Women in the Gyms

NEW YORK—Like most New Yorkers, I get my principal exercise by lifting a check or raising my voice.

But they finally got me into Reilly's Health Club up in the RCA building the other day—by promising me the famous beauty, Tina Louise, of TV stage and Cinema, would be there in gym togs.

"Well, well," I said as soon as I saw Tina. "I'd like to take a half hour of setting-up myself."

Pat Reilly smiled icily. "You couldn't last a half hour at the kind of exercise Tina does. She has a real workout."

And he mentioned that Eleanor Holm, Shirley Booth, Jinx Falkenberg and Bea Wain also take real workouts—and that men are in danger of becoming the flabby, paunchy weaker sex if they aren't already.

"Maybe I should settle for a massage," I mumbled.

Tina sniggered. She was now working with 20-pound dumbbells. "I don't believe in massages. I believe in doing the exercise myself."

A nervy fellow with me said, "Tina, let's feel your muscle."

He fell back in dismay. Her biceps are 13½ inches. Her highness—she's 5-8½—weights 140, and measures 38-25-37½ if you care for such childish facts.

Deciding to show Tina I've got a pretty good physique myself, I began getting my jacket off—which itself is a little difficult lately.

"Have you compared muscles with Faye Emerson and Rita Hayworth, the judo experts?" I puffed to Tina.

"I don't think I'd ever use judo on a man. I like men too much to throw them around," she said.

Tina, who comes from Miami, Connecticut and other places, said her workout helped her switch from "L'il Abner" on B'way to the movie "God's Little Acre." In the latter she had to run a total of a couple miles once being chased by Aldo Rav "who didn't catch me, darn it."

Finally I got my jacket off. "Wanna wrestle, Tina?" I challenged her.

"No," she smiled sweetly. "You're afraid!" I taunted her.

"Afraid I might break you in two," she said.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Glamor Unglamorized

HOLLYWOOD—Myrna Hansen, so lovely in "Raintree County," is getting the un-glamor Girl route now in an effort to hypo her career. Myrna is screen-tested all covered with pimples invented by MGM's makeup department for the role of the pitiful leper girl in "Ben-Hur."

Bob Hope, who signed the marriage license as the happy couple's witness, couldn't take the howling hordes who mobbed him at the "intimate" (ha!) wedding of Jayne Mansfield and Mickey Hargitay and got the minister to sneak him out the rear door of the glass Wayfarers' Church in Palos Verdes, Calif. Hope had a recording session scheduled at RCA-Victor for 10 p.m.

The crowds were so thick Bob didn't get to the recording studio until 30 minutes past The Witching Hour of midnight... Bob's crack about the glass church in which the Hargitays were hitched: "What a spot for a glass wax commercial on TV!"

MARY MURPHY, ex-wife of Dale Robertson, may be the next wife of Hollywood agent Kurt Frings, estranged spouse of Ketti Frings, the playwright whose "Look Homeward, Angel" is Broadway's biggest dramatic smash—and why is it that so many successes in other fields usually spell failure to so many so-called "successful" Hollywood marriages? Kurt and Ketti were one of our "ideal couples" until Ketti hit The Hit Jackpot.

Old-time movie producer Jesse Lasky, one of the happiest men I've ever known, died happily too—but broke, Jesse, converted by his wife to the "positive thinking" way of life after years of trying the tooth-&-nail comeback method, had $450,000 of his own money sunk into a movie script, "The Big Brass Band," and owed Mr. Whiskers $482,000.

INCIDENTALLY, Paramount, the studio Lasky founded, may take over "The Big Brass Band." It's about a lad who bounces from tootling a horn in his high school band to The Big Time.

Bobby Troup tore off for London for London—meaning Julie London has finished shooting "A Question of Adultery" over there and he's going to bring her home... Wealthy Texan tyke in a tiff with another WTT: "G'wan, I'll betcha ANYTHING my pop can write a bigger check than your pop!"

TV TOPICS—Hollywood-type birthday present: Harriet and Ozzie Nelson set up a $250,000 trust fund for their son David on his 21st... No wonder Sarah Churchill got loaded. Did you see that beautiful coat they gave her to do in Mexico?

Jake (The Barber) Factor, his

Chicago gangster days far behind him, donated $68,000 to Temple Beth-El in Hollywood... It Had to Happen: Frank Sinatra, The Thin One, will do a guesting on a Thin Man segment... Visiting Pete Lawford on the Thin Man set at MGM-TV, I told him how much I enjoyed Bob Taylor's guest shot, same show. Pete smiled and said, "Great, isn't it? Our ratings are going 'way up'—The Thin Man is gaining weight!"

PETE WAS PUZZLING over what song he should duet with Dinah Shore on her Jan. 26 show. I suggested they reprise the liltin' Lawford-June Allyson "French Lesson" song from MGM's old movie, "Good News"—and danged if Pete didn't opine it might be a good idea!

Phyllis Kirk's cryptic crack about the ring she wears as Pete's wife in The Thin Man (and does this mean she won't be marrying funnyman Mort Sahl after all?) "I'll never get used to it!"

Red Buttons' shamefaced confession: His wife calls him "Rouge"... Musicman Buddy Bregman got dusted by actress Anne Francis. The engagement is off-off-OFF... Ever since Mary Costa's song-&-dance bit on the Plymouth commercial for Climax her phone's been jingling with Hollywood movie offers. Mary, already set with Maurice Chevalier for a picture to be shot abroad this summer, may have shot herself right out of TV into a new career.

SHIRLEY HARMER, the beautiful Canadiana canary who chirps on the George Gobel show, has her eyes glued on movies too. She's taking dramatic lessons... NBC-TV's Court of Last Resort series flunked in its last resort appeal to its sponsor and gets bounced off the telebeam April 4.

Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, doggedly determined to make its Oscar Awards telecast March 26 (the first to be sponsored by the motion picture industry itself and NOT by Oldsmobile!) a great show business spectacle, has already lined up Danny Kaye for a special number—plus a four-minute Walt Disney cartoon of the history of movies—and, best of all, a guarantee from Clark Gable that he'll appear on the show.

John Drew Barrymore's mother-in-law moved out so all's smooth-as-silk with John and his spouse, Cara Williams, again... ARK MARINERS GROUP members from Palm Springs Community Church gathered for their monthly social at Palm Springs Roller Rink this week. A skating party was followed by refreshments at the Village home of Roy and Alta Davis. Mariners enjoying the Davis hospitality were Anne Christenberry, Lydia and John Dodge, Evelyn Schilling, Roy and Alta Davis, Don Bachtell and Shirley and Carl Larson. (Desert Sun Photos)

SHOPPING in the SUN

with Margie

The direction of a community is easily discovered with just a bit of study. Our direction is onward and upward and you find convincing evidence on every side. There is well balanced and eager growth in every facet of the area. Most importantly this direction is on a high plane—a fact to make one gratefully proud.

Contributing to this continued promising growth picture is the PALM SPRINGS SCHOOL OF FINE ARTS. Betty Royer agrees with Mme. Alexandra Danilova, one of the world's top prima ballerinas, that classical ballet movements, "are the best exercise for a woman's body."

THIS EXPLAINS the widespread enthusiasm for her Slim-gym class which every one of us should be participating in. Whether your desire is to be slender or to be poised, graceful, and beautifully agile—or all of these—you should realize how available it is to you. Every woman who looks well exercises daily.

Mme. Danilova, although she is retired from the stage retains her 110-pound weight and a firm young figure and so can you. In her words, "Very seldom is a woman born a goddess—and she can always improve herself!"

It is the desire of Betty Royer's Slim-gym class to help you do so—to unveil a class that you might not have dreamed possible. New

EXAMPLES OF FASHION awareness in the area are MARGE RILEY'S Palm Springs "spring hats." Bursting with ingenuity and original freshness, they speak well of Palm Springs wherever they are seen across the nation. These hats begin as a variety of straws, all shapes and sizes, and end up as a millinery delight.

Each is a creation in itself and no two end up alike. They are bedecked with colorful satin or silk ribbon, rainbow blossoms of every size and description, exotic birds, or desert fruits. Palm Springs hats are worn with swim suits, western wear and gown dresses alike, and are seen day or night.

EVEN HUSBANDS have been known to be so captivated by them as to ask to borrow. I really don't blame them because they are so gaily typical of the area. Prices range from $5.95 to $25. If you feel inclined to do some creating on your own, Marge can furnish you with ribbons and flowers with which to let your imagination run rampant. Whatever your approach, you simply must own a Palm Springs "spring hat" and be a fashion example of carefree distinctive living. (227 South Palm Canyon)

IT ADJUSTS TO your particular height. The seat can also be raised or lowered to keep feet properly on the floor without pressure on the thighs. All these advantages plus foam rubber construction and an array of colors and fabrics, make this chair a must for home or office.

It will literally pay for itself by increasing work output. (768 North Palm Canyon)

Elections Dates Here Listed by City Manager

City Manager R. W. Peterson this week listed the dates of elections in this area, which started off yesterday with the Junior College elections for the entire boundaries of the Palm Springs Unified School District and Coachella Valley High School District.

On Feb. 18, two separate elections will be held in Palm Springs, one the long, controversial subject of councilmanic redistricting, and the other the annexation of Section 30, south of Palm Springs.

In the latter, only registered voters within the Section will be able to cast a ballot, whereas in the redistricting balloting, every voter in the city will be able to vote for whether he or she would like to have nine or seven council representatives.

On April 8 there will be the councilmanic election in Palm Springs.

The vote for a new sewer project for the City of Palm Springs will go on the ballot on April 29 and will be followed on June 10 by the statewide Primary election.

Plans Discussed For Crippled Children's Camp

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Plans for the new Frank Sanderson camp for crippled children at Big Bear Lake were discussed here last week at the quarterly meeting of the California Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.

Hosted by Pauline J. Kull, Mrs. Rufus Perry and Les Morgan, of DHS, the group included 27 representatives from Indio, Hemet, San Jacinto and Riverside. The meeting was held at the Highland Coffee Shop.

Wisconsin Skiing

EAU CLAIRE, Wis. — (UP) — The tourist trade is becoming more and more a year-round Wisconsin business with the opening of new hotels and resorts in the ski area. All the ski areas in 15 northwestern Wisconsin counties have undergone additions and improvements to attract more tourists. Seventy resorts already have opened for the winter season.

Ralph Resigns As President of Police Group

Sgt. Robert Ralph today announced his resignation as head of the Palm Springs Police Officers Association, and said that a special meeting of the association would be held Thursday, Jan. 23. Nominations for a new president of the association will be accepted Thursday, and in the meantime Vice President Robert Elavin will take over the running of the organization.

Sgt. Ralph resigned because of the press of duty, but will remain active in the association. He was serving his second term in the office.

The association has set the date of the annual Police Benefit show at the High School rectangle for March 29. Top stars have already agreed to appear on the show.

Old Pottery

ST. PAUL — (UP) — A chunk of pottery, first molded by Indians over 4,000 years ago, may be the oldest of its kind ever found in the United States. Researchers for the St. Paul Science Museum discovered the handful of pottery on Grey Cloud Island in the Mississippi River below St. Paul during recent excavations.

WILLIAM E. ENGEL, left, president of the Riverside Plaza Merchants Association and general manager of The Harris Company; and R. G. Hibbard, general manager of Riverside Plaza, discuss plans to honor the eleven members of the Queen Scheherazade Court on Friday from 5 to 8:30 p.m. at the Riverside Plaza, when the Merchants Association of that shopping center presents a Preview of the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival.

Riverside to Honor Queen Scheherazade Contestants

In honor of the eleven members of the Queen Scheherazade Court as well as their sponsoring cities and towns, on Friday, Jan. 31, from 5 to 8:30 p.m. at the Riverside Plaza, the Merchant's Association of that shopping center is presenting a Preview of the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival. This will be the only advance showing for the public prior to the main event.

Everyone is invited to join in paying tribute to the eleven contestants who are competing for the title of Queen Scheherazade.

PARTICIPATING WILL be Miss Banning, Miss Beaumont, Miss Blythe, Miss Coachella Valley, Miss Corona, Miss Elsinore, Miss Hemet, Miss Palm Springs, Miss Perris, Miss Riverside and Miss San Jacinto. On Feb. 8, one from this group will be selected to reign as Queen, with the others presiding as her court at the Indio Date Festival, Feb. 14 to 23.

FEATURING AN Arabian Nights theme, the Preview will begin at 5 p.m. with a parade of camels around the perimeter of Riverside Plaza. Following will be a buffet supper at 6 p.m. in the Alesandro Room of The Harris Company, where the eleven contestants, their sponsors, and the Queen Supervisor, Mrs. Ora G. Jared will be welcomed. At 7 p.m., the Queen Scheherazade Court, attired in Near Eastern costumes, will parade around the Plaza up to the east end of the Mall for the highlight of the evening.

Entertainment will also include songs and dances in keeping with the pageantry of the Arabian Nights theme.

Attempt to Reorganize Supervisorial Board Fails

A proposal by Supervisor Fred McCall that the Board of Supervisors consider reorganization and the appointment of a new board chairman was voted down this week by the votes of Supervisors George Berkey, Curtis Chamberlain, and Paul Anderson.

McCall said his action grew out of a Grand Jury recommendation for reorganization of the county hospital and air pollution control commissions. "I think we'd better reorganize ourselves," said he, "instead of other departments."

THE CHAIRMAN, said McCall, should always be in a position to call for a vote of confidence. He said that with a prevailing board split of three to two, with Chairman Paul Anderson one of the three, a vote of confidence could not be achieved, since the chairman could hardly vote for confidence in himself, and the result would be a tie vote.

He said he believed that two of the supervisors could, if they were in the chair, win a majority vote of confidence. He indicated the two he had in mind to be Chamberlain and Berkey.

WHEN HIS MOTION for consideration of a new chairman was voted down, McCall challenged Supervisor Anderson to ask for a vote of confidence.

"Isn't the vote against reorganization in effect a vote of confidence?" asked Anderson. "Do you expect a different vote?"

"Yes, I do," replied McCall. "This is acting like school children," interrupted Chamberlain. "Being chairman is a thankless job. Anderson is doing a good job. The time to reorganize is following an election. We could make this a nice board if each one of us would just try."

"YOU'RE WILLING to reorganize anything but the board of supervisors," charged McCall. "That's not true," replied Chamberlain. "If the Grand Jury had recommended that we reorganize, or change chairmen every year, then it might be something for us to do. You're all a nice bunch of fellows. The board is running smoother than it was a year ago. I'm worried about the public reaction to this discussion," said Supervisor Berkey. "A majority vote decides many issues that may be controversial, but at that 95 per cent of our actions are by unanimous vote. I think we have a healthy situation."

"A COUPLE OF US are economy minded and the other members of the board aren't," said McCall.

"It's just that your approach is different," argued Berkey. "I think you take a negative attitude and consider that economy. We can spend money and in the long run save money."

"I have always supported a department head when he has shown he could save money by spending money," said McCall. "I have no ill will against anyone on the board. I just thought you might give consideration to reorganizing for the good of the board."

"Do you have anything more to bring up?" asked Anderson.

"I move we adjourn," said Supervisor William Jones who had remained silent throughout the entire discussion except for seconding McCall's motion. And thus ended a lengthy board session.

'Celluloid Kid' Trial Delayed Until March 10

Superior Court trial of jewel thief suspect Jimmy Gould, better known in police circles as the "Celluloid Kid," has been postponed until March 10.

Gould, charged with the theft of more than $5,000 worth of jewels from a Tamarisk Country Club home, was originally scheduled for trial this week at Indio Superior Court.

Gould, whose lengthy police record includes similar current charges at Las Vegas, earned his nickname through his alleged methods of entering homes by slipping a strip of celluloid under a door latch.

Book Comes Back

EAST CHICAGO — (UP) — Librarian Hardin Smith said the library received through the mail a copy of Scott's Postage Stamp Album that was stolen from his library in 1932. A $10 bill was attached to the book by a rubber band, probably to cover damage to the originally $1.50 volume when the borrower cut or marked off practically all owned identification on the book.

MOTION PICTURE STAR Elaine Stewart points out on map how she wants the units built on the large block of land in the South end of Palm Springs, that she purchased from Realtor Peter

B. Sheptenko. Even though she is quite busy with picture commitments, she plans on spending a large amount of time in Palm Springs during the winter season.

Councilmanic Election to Be As Confusing as Income Tax

If anything could be more confusing than figuring your income tax next April, it could well be the coming Councilmanic election scheduled for the same month—only a few days earlier.

As it was explained this week by City Manager R. W. Peterson, (chronologically of course) filing of candidacy for the April 8 election starts Thursday, Jan. 23, and the deadline is Feb. 13.

THE DATE OF THE coming Redistricting election has been set for Feb. 18, five days after the filing deadline.

This means that anyone who plans to run in either of the two possible new districts must file his intention to run before he knows whether or not there are going to be new districts.

At this point the situation becomes almost impossible to understand and even more difficult to report.

BECAUSE OF PROPOSED changes within present district boundaries it is quite possible that a person who is planning to run in District 2 (living in that district now) may find that he will be in District 6 if councilmanic redistricting is passed.

That means that he must file an intention to run in both districts in order to qualify for election, regardless of the Feb. 18 election outcome.

City to Meet With Highway Group Thursday

Palm Springs City Council has asked the members of the California State Highway Commission to a luncheon meeting in Palm Springs Thursday, at which time the city administrators hope to be able to discuss many common problems.

The luncheon meeting, to be held at El Mirador Hotel will afford councilmen and city officials a chance to talk over problems facing the resort area, including the possible improvement of Highway 111, the installation of signals at certain main intersections in downtown Palm Springs, the erection of signs along the highway within the city limits, and the possible alternate route through the valley.

The meeting between the two bodies does not mean that this is a hearing on any particular matter, nor does it mean that any decisions will be made concerning any problem here, said City Manager R. W. Peterson.

"It is strictly a public relations meeting and an opportunity for the city to talk with the highway commissioners during their Southland tour."

Mayor Jerry Sanborn said today that he was sorry that the city could not issue invitations to interested parties, but space and time prevents a public forum.

In the last 50 years, Arkansas has produced about 25 million long tons of bauxite. Only French mines have yielded more.

Translator Stations Start Fund for More Channels

Palm Springs Translator Stations, Inc., today opened a new fund raising campaign to raise additional monies to add more channels to the present Translator system.

Translator late last year successfully completed a drive for operational funds for this year, and has already filed applications for additional channels.

FRANK BENNETT, campaign chairman for the drive said today that letters have gone out to some 500 persons who were contributors to the non-profit TV last year, but who did not contribute this year. Some of these persons contributed because of their interest in the free TV, but do not have the television sets, it was explained.

Contributions are made by persons who want the cableless television in Palm Springs and who will donate $15 per year per set for it.

IN A LETTER to each of the persons who contributed last year but who did not this year, Bennett pointed out "that anyone who uses

Church Women Hear Talks by Two Speakers

CATHEDRAL CITY — A large group of Cathedral City Community Church Women heard two outstanding speakers at their January association meeting.

During the morning session Dr. Grace Soong Line told about Dr. Jones and his Piney Woods School in Tennessee, and in the afternoon the Rev. Jaime Quinones, a native of Puerto Rico, told of the importance of Mission Giving as evidenced by its effect on his own personal life.

On Wednesday, Jan. 22, the Women's Presbyterian will meet in San Bernardino.

Artist Racket Finally Halted

ISERLOHN, Germany — Two members of an international gang of painting swindlers have been arrested and charged with selling copies of old masters, German police said today.

Police said Emanuel De Nieuwe, alias Pimental, 49, and Friedrich Kohn, 50, were arrested while trying to sell a collection of fake paintings to an Iserlohn dealer who became suspicious.

According to police, the two men had been sought by Interpol, the international police organization, for several years and had collected about $1,300,000 in six years working their racket.

After defrosting a chest-type freezer, use a sponge mop to soak up water in the bottom. This saves stooping and gets water out of corners.

Liebling Offers Ultimatum to City Council

A. M. Liebling, owner of the property facing Tahquitz Drive on the north between Indian Avenue and Palm Canyon Drive, and whose controversies with the City Council made news last year, opened new proceedings yesterday in a letter to the council.

Liebling told the council that unless they were ready to purchase a strip of land for a right-of-way along the north side of the newly widened Tahquitz Drive, he was going to start construction of a wall of ornamental fence along next to the curb.

IN ORDER FOR the city to widen the street in this area, it was necessary to widen the street right to the north edge of the city's right-of-way, and this left no room for parking meters along the curb except on private property.

The owner has said that he would sell a right-of-way to the city to install meters on, but has been unsuccessful in this.

The city believes that, as in similar cases around town, that the right-of-way should be given to the city so that it can be taken off the tax rolls, thereby lowering the owner's city taxes.

MEMBERS OF the council have said that if Liebling does build his fence along the curb line, it will be necessary for the city to paint the curb red and allow no parking on the north side of the street.

Liebling set his deadline for action by the city for the end of this week.

Scholastic Art Awards Contest Now Under Way

With more than 7,000 individual entries anticipated, the 1958 Scholastic Art Awards competition for junior and high school students is underway in the eight-county Southern California region.

Ida May Anderson, Los Angeles City Schools art supervisor and regional contest chairman, said that artwork entries are now being received. Scholastic Art Awards, which awards gold keys and certificates of merit at the regional level, also presents more than 100 art scholarships and about $19,000 in cash prizes to winners in the national competition.

Following screening and judging in 26 different art categories by a professional "jury," a public exhibit of winning works will be presented at Bullock's Downtown, co-sponsor with Scholastic Magazines.

Contest area in the Southern California region includes junior and senior high school artists in the counties of Los Angeles, Kern, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Luis Obispo, and Ventura.

Two Extension Courses Planned At Indio School

INDIO — University of California at Riverside today announced two extension courses to be offered at the Jefferson School in Indio, starting the first part of next month.

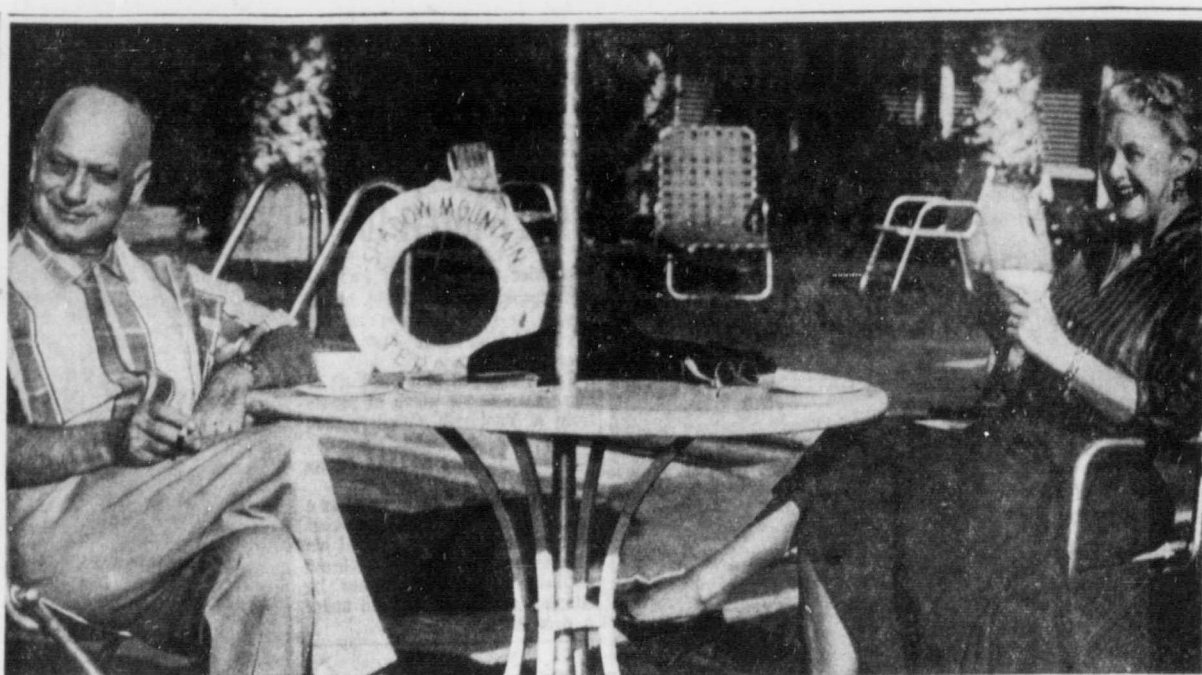

Audio Visual Education course is designed to acquaint teachers with theories and methods of visual instruction and to furnish experience in the utilization of audio visual aids. An organizational meeting will be held at 9 a. m., Saturday, Feb. 8, and Robert Fidler, teacher at Nicholas School in Fullerton, will be the instructor.

Methods of Teaching Science in the Elementary School is the second course, and an organizational meeting will be held at 7 p. m., Friday, Feb. 7. It is designed to help the elementary teacher integrate science with the regular program.

'Los Cinco' Hits New Jackpot

BARCELONA, Spain — A five-man group which calls itself "Los Cinco" today celebrated its second big football pool win within a year. The group won this week's lottery for $861,000. A year ago the same group hauled in $36,000.

The system in picking the winners? "Give the underdog in any given game the benefit of the doubt."

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

The sun drops below the mountains . . . and as quickly as it disappears . . . twilight veils the Village . . . while we can still look out across the desert and see the sun-washed sand dunes . . . Quickly as this change comes . . . so does the warm sunshiny afternoon of casual outdoor living . . . fade into the cocktail hour . . . and the late dinner in restaurant or nightclub . . . where there's dancing to the music of superb orchestras . . . or entertainment by name stars . . . or off to some glamorous ball . . . where furs and fashions are fabulous . . . The daytime sports enhance the glitter of the evenings . . . as we live it up . . . the Palm Springs way . . .

Riding is very popular with the younger set . . . and many youngsters are on the horses that head out of the Ranch Club Stables each day . . . Among recent riders have been . . . Stephen Bogart, son of the late Humphrey Bogart . . . and Van Johnson's daughter Schuyler . . .

Fans of the old-time silent films . . . have maintained loyalty to the early stars and still think the new ones don't quite measure up . . . Any of these fans might have been startled if they happened onto a young Francis X. Bushman around Oasis Hotel this past week . . . It's Ralph Bushman, son of the early days favorite . . . who, with his wife, has been holidaying in Palm Springs . . .

Ruth and Chuck Bowie are here from New York for their annual winter visit . . . and have a bungalow at the Racquet Club . . .

Star of the St. Valentines Party at Chi Chi . . . will be Betty Grable . . . who is opening a 10-day engagement there that night . . . This will be a benefit affair for the Catholic Churches . . . and will be an elaborate and exciting affair . . .

Bullocks Sponsor Helga Show

The Bullocks - sponsored dinner showing of fashions by Helga filled the Tennis Club and professional models paraded a procession of high fashion gowns, from the new collection.

The show opened with spring prints, featuring beige for 1958, and showed sheer wools including a chemise, intricately cut and softly tied and gathered. There were numerous models in the navy blue some in silk linens, some in silk surch.

The after five gowns offered spring garden prints, and the resort clothes shown were in the lighter, brighter colors. The show concluded with a group of dancing dresses.

It was commented by Mr. Oppenheimer of Helga. The dinner crowd filled the Bougainvillea Room. Miss Addie Hubbard, manager of Bullock's Palm Springs store had as her guests, prominent winter visitors Mr. and Mrs. William Rohan (the president of Winston & Company of Minneapolis), Mr. and Mrs. Warren L. Gerow (owner of the President in Minneapolis), Harry Pagett (vice president of Marsh, McLennan & Corgrove of Los Angeles, and Villagers Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Honey, Mrs. Mildred E. Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Quinn.

In another big party were the W. B. Malouf, Tom Flemings, S. P. Manasses, the Kenneth Kirks. Nearby were the Warren Gilmore. The George Robersons were entertaining friends, as was Mrs. Austin McManus. And there were dozens more, dining and dancing and watching the style show.

Industrialist Visits Grimms

Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grimm of 258 San Jacinto Drive, are noted Canadian industrialist Charles H. Kennedy and his wife and their daughter, Mrs. Fred McLean, and Mrs. Elvie Davis, all of Vancouver, B. C., Canada.

Thursday evening the Grimms entertained at a dinner party in the Starlite room of the Chi Chi and watched the Liberace show.

Among the guests, all from Vancouver, were Mr. and Mrs. Colan Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Don McLean, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Squire, Mrs. Elvie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Kennedy and Mrs. Fred McLean.

The Kennedys, who have traveled all over the world, find Palm Springs their favorite vacation spot and plan to stay until March.

Lamas and Dahl Parents of Son

SANTA MONICA, Calif. — Actress Arlene Dahl, wife of actor-musical comedy star Fernando Lamas, gave birth Monday afternoon to a son at St. John's Hospital.

Both the mother and the boy, who weighed 7½ pounds, were reported in good condition. It was the first child for the Lamases, who were married in 1954.

OESa Club Plans Dinner And Card Party

A "Pay the Rent" dinner and card party will be given by the OESa Club on Saturday, Jan. 25, at the Masonic Temple, 1006 East Ramon Road. The serving of dinner will begin at 6 p. m. and will be followed by an evening of entertainment, games and cards. Everyone is welcome and cordially invited to attend. Tickets and information may be obtained by contacting ticket chairman, Frances Brudvik, phone FA 4-2481, or Estelle Schiller at the Ramon Drug Store.

General chairman of the evening is Anita Dubin, assisted by Fern Van Eizenga and Frances Hanley, co-chairmen of the dinner; Ethel Embree and Hilda Fredericksen, co-chairmen of the clean-up committee; Florence Murphy, chairman of entertainment; and Frances Brudvik, ticket chairman.

Mrs. Dubin emphasizes that all will be welcome at this dinner on Jan. 26 and she urges everyone to come and enjoy a good evening.

To freshen dry fruit cake, heat over hot water in tightly covered double boiler. Pour sherry or brandy over it, wrap well and store.

B'nai B'rith Women to Meet On Thursday

B'nai B'rith Women's Group will hold their next regular meeting Thursday evening, January 23, at 8 p. m. at the Jewish Community Center. This will be a joint meeting with the Men's Lodge. The two groups will hold separate meetings, later converging to enjoy entertainment and refreshments, which will be served by the ladies.

Nomination and election will be held with only paid-up members eligible to run for office, or to vote. However, all prospective members and guests are invited to attend and will be welcome.

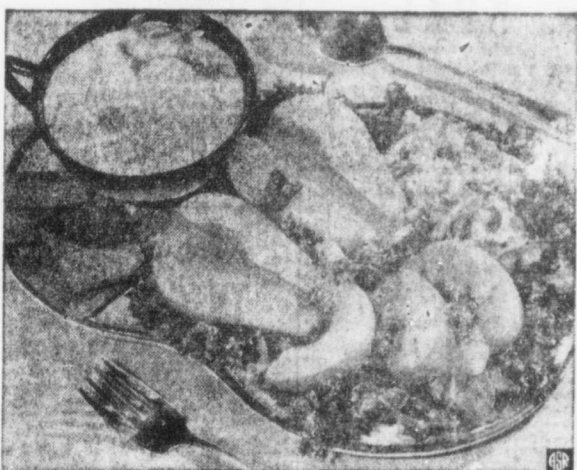

Plans for the institution and installation dinner to be held in the Chi Chi Starlite Room on Thursday, February 6, will be discussed.

Soup—Salad Medley

* An open door to eat-well-easily is the medley of nourishing canned soups with salads made of canned fruits. The menu plan can be used over and over again yet varied each time with a different soup or a different fruit combination. This family favorite is easily adapted to table or tray service and is prepared quickly.

To make this super salad, a mixture of tangy pineapple-cheese is served with pear halves and sliced peaches. You'll also like the cheese mixture with canned pineapple, apricots and citrus sections.

Fruit And Pineapple-Cheese Salad
¾ lb. sharp cheddar cheese
1 can (4 oz.) pimientos
¼ cup mayonnaise
¼ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 can (16 oz.) pear halves
1 can (16 oz.) sliced peaches
Salad greens

Mix grated cheese, drained chopped pimientos, mayonnaise, salt and lemon juice. Arrange a mound of the cheese mixture, chilled drained pear halves and peach slices on salad greens on individual salad plates. Four servings.

PEANUTS

WELL, HI THERE O' FUZZY-FACE!

HOW'S O' FUZZY-FACE TODAY? YOU LOOK KIND OF DEPRESSED

HAS SOMETHING TOUCHED YOUR FUZZY O' HEART?

I CAN'T STAND IT!

CORDO

REALLY! ITS THE LATEST SCIENTIFIC JAZZ, MEES KUIZ! PERPTO TOLE ME!

WE DEEDNT SPRING FROM MONKEYS AT ALL!

WE CAME FROM THE SEA-FROM YELLOW ALGAE!-WE'RE PLANTS!

I'VE KNOWN FOR A LONG TIME THAT YOU

NEED PRUNING...YOU PERENNIAL CLINGING VINE!

ARCHIE

MISS GRUNDY, DON'T YOU THINK I SHOULD TELL THE PRINCIPAL HIS GARTER IS HANGING!

JUST MIND YOUR BUSINESS, ARCHIE. I'LL TAKE CARE OF IT!

YOW!

POGO

LOOK, THE PLACE THESE PEOPLE WAS GOIN' WHIST I WAS ON MY WAY TO ST. IVES DON'T MATTER...I WAS THE ONLY ONE GOIN' TO ST. IVES.

SO WHAT? WHO CARES WHERE YOU WAS GOIN'?

IT'S A MATTER OF REPURASIN THE QUESTION...SPOSE THEY WAS GOIN' TO HOLYOKE, MASS. OKAY?

THE THING WHAT'S MADE IT HARD IS IT AIN'T ASKED RIGHT...IT OUGHT TO GO: AS I WAS GOIN' TO ST. IVES, I MET A MAN WITH SEVEN WIVES, EVERY WIFE HAD SEVEN BACKS, EVERY BACK HAD SEVEN CATS, EVERY CAT HAD SEVEN KITS...

SO FAR, SO GOOD.

SO, KITS, CATS, SACKS AND WIVES, HOW MANY WAS GOIN' TO HOLYOKE, MASS.?

HON'S THAT!?

IT SIMPLIFIES IT.

MUGGS & SKEETER

WE'RE STARVED, GRANDMA! WHAT ARE YOU HAVING FOR DINNER?

LEFTOVERS!

SHE'S KIDDING! WE HAD LEFTOVERS LAST NIGHT!

I'LL BET IT'S SOMETHING GOOD. MAYBE STEAK OR ROAST BEEF!

YOU CAN'T POOL US WITH THAT LEFTOVERS ROUTINE, GRANDMA.

WE HAD LEFTOVERS LAST NIGHT!

SO WE DID...

...AND TONIGHT WE'RE HAVING LEFTOVERS FROM LAST NIGHT'S LEFTOVERS!

ETTA KETT

I'VE GOT TO FIGURE A WAY TO STOP THAT KID FROM EATING HERE EVERY NIGHT!

HI, SIR! WHEN DO WE EAT?

WHO CARES? MY WIFE'S GOING ON A CRAZY NEW DIET! NOW WE'LL ALL STARVE!

-PICKLE JUICE- STRING-BERN SOUR- SPINACH SALAD- NO DESSERTS UGH!

-BUT DINNER'S READY!- SORRY, MOM'S EXPECTING ME HOME!

MARK TRAIL

WE'VE HAD A WONDERFUL TIME, BOB!

I'LL BE BACK SOON, CHRIS. I PROMISE!

...AND I'LL WRITE EVERY DAY!

THANKS, MARK... I APPRECIATE EVERYTHING YOU DID FOR US!

SECRET AGENT X9

ILSA! YOU-IN THE EMPLOY OF A FOREIGN AGENT! YOU WERE PLANTED TO PLOT ERIC RUDWIG'S DEATH!

YES! AS HIS HOUSEKEEPER, I WAITED SIX YEARS FOR THE PARTY TO FINGER HIM FOR DEATH!

AND YOU USED MY LOVE TO PULL THE TRIGGER ON A TOP MISSILE SCIENTIST! AT LEAST I DON'T HAVE TO SHARE THIS BLOOD MONEY WITH Y-

YOU FOOL! IT WAS NEVER INTENDED THAT YOU WERE TO SPEND A PENNY OF THAT TEN THOUSAND! THE PARTY WILL USE IT AGAIN AND AGAIN!

At this moment FBI agents Phil Corrigan and Joe Oster foot...

WE'RE ON 1220 STREET, JOE! LET'S TAKE IT EASY! THE COTTAGE IS AT THE CORNER OF 1220 AND HEARTH-

LET'S HOPE THAT OUR MAN IS STILL THERE, PHIL!

JOE PALOOKA

HERE-TELL THAT!

I'M S-SORRY... I HAD TO T-TELL HIM, CHESTER.

ER, SCUSE ME, FOLKS... I GOTTA BE ON MY WAY!

CH, TCH... 'CHESTER' SHORE IS A UNUSUAL NAME FOR A GIRL!

IT'S JUST AS WELL YOU CALLED MY BOSS, DEAR... I COULDN'T GO THROUGH WITH MY PLAN ANYWAY!

I REALIZE NOW THAT IN SPIRIT OF DEVOTING MY LIFE TO WORKING FOR YOU-IT WAS NO EXCUSE TO STEAL, BOSS!

I'VE BEEN BLIND AND UNAPPRECIATIVE, CHESTER... DON'T CALL ME, BOSS, PARTNER!

TCH, TCH... SUCH STRANGE GOIN'S ON! OH, THANK GOONUSS- THERE'S MISS IVY'S PLANE NOW!

Thunderbird Hosts Leading Pros in $15,000 Tourney

Top Field Tees Off Thursday

At around 8 a. m. tomorrow, two score of the nation's top money winners of 1957 around the pro golf circuit and 120 amateurs will start the seventh annual Thunderbird Country Club Invitational $15,000 Pro-Member tournament on the club's green, palm-tree studded course with play scheduled to continue until Sunday afternoon.

The event will bring the nation's leading golf pros into action. It is the second of three big tournaments in the Palm Springs area this week.

THE FIRST was at Indian Wells Country Club yesterday and the third will see the top stars of the Pro circuit in action at El Dorado Monday.

In play at Thunderbird tomorrow through Sunday, the pros will cover a 72-hole medal route. Tomorrow and Friday each pro will be teamed up with three Thunderbird Club members or guests. There will be 18 holes each day.

SATURDAY and Sunday the pros will go it alone, completing 18 holes each day for the 72 total. The pros are competing for a share in $15,000 prize money sponsored by members of Thunderbird. The amateurs will receive hand-some awards.

Practice rounds were held Tuesday and yesterday by the pros and club members and drew large galleries.

JIMMY DEMARET is defending champion. He won the fifth event in 1956 and repeated in the sixth last year. Dick Mayer, 1957 U.S. Open champion, Frank Stranahan, Billy Casper, winners of big time tournaments already this year, Eric Monti, recently voted Athlete of the Month for December by the Helms Athletic Foundation for his victory in the Southern California Open at Indian Wells, Mike Souchak, Ken Venturi, Gene Littler, Bob Rosburg, Bo Wininger and a flock of other money winners last year, will be seen in action at Thunderbird the next four days.

AMONG BIG NAME stars who will also appear on the fairways and greens during the first two days of play are Bing Crosby, Dean Martin, Phil Harris, Hoagy Carmichael, Desi Arnaz, Gordon MacRae and many others.

Gallery fees for the pro-member play tomorrow and Friday are $5.00 each day and for the pro play Saturday and Sunday, $5 each day. For the full tournament the gallery fee is $10.

THEN NEXT MONDAY, the touring pros will move a short distance down the desert to take part in the first tournament scheduled at El Dorado Country Club, the resort area's newest course.

El Dorado will stage a one-day $5,000 pro-member tournament over an 18-hole route with the same name stars appearing.

Gallery fees at El Dorado will be $2 per person.

Montecito Team Loses to Tennis Club, 33 to 25

After some close matches, marking the second annual inter-club competition between the Montecito Tennis Club of Santa Barbara and the Palm Springs Tennis Club, the local netmen won 33 to 25.

The two teams had fought on even terms going into the final day, the tally being 19-all at mid-way point. Then the Tennis Club pulled away to an eight-point lead.

This is the second straight year that the Palm Springs Tennis Club has defeated the Santa Barbarians.

More than 60 players participated. An exhibition doubles match in which Noel Brown, 14th ranking tennis star in the United States and Geoffrey Bill of England faced tennis pros Byron DeMott and Eddie Meyerson, was a feature.

Bud James and Jack Wrape, president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the Tennis Club hosted a pre-game cocktail party in the desert spa's picturesque dining room for both playing groups. Later the guests and members dined in the same room and enjoyed dancing to the music of Jimmy Ford.

Model Plumbing Takes Lead in Bowling League

Indians Romp Over Cougar Varsity, 73-42; Bees Edged

Braves Move to First Division in RCL Race

By JOE HENDERSON JR.
Palm Springs Varsity moved up into the first division of the Riverside County League last night but the Bees dropped back as a result of two games with Beaumont High on the local floor.

The Varsity exploded for 73 points to trim the Cougar Varsity 73-42 and today rated as the highest scoring team to date in the RCL.

BUT THE BEES dropped their game to Beaumont in a close one, 50 to 54, by virtue of slumping in the first and final periods. In the Varsity game, Stan Cirata, Joe Lewis and Bobby Jackson paced the Indians to a 22-5 lead but Beaumont came back in the second quarter to make it 31-19 at the half.

The Indians came back after recess to increase their lead and coast to victory.

CIRATA TOOK HIGH scoring honors with 16. Lewis had 15 and Dick McFarland, 12.

Bob Burton was high for the Panosue squad in the Bee game. Ray Lee of Beaumont took high game honors with 19.

The scores:
Varsity

EL CENTRO AP—J. C. Goosie, 28-year-old golfer from Knoxville, moved into the second round of the 36-hole, $5,000 El Centro Pro-Amateur Tournament today with a one-stroke lead over the field.

Goosie started out with bogies on the first two holes Tuesday, but settled down to fire eight birdies in 15 holes and finish out the day with a 35-33-68 card.

AKINS Looking for New Rewards, Titles
BOSTON AP—Virgil Akins was still welterweight champion of Massachusetts today but he was making well-founded plans for greater rewards and titles.

Co-manager Eddie Yawitz said the next goal for the second-ranked St. Louisan was either Walter Barnes of Australia or Vince Martinez of Paterson, N.J.

"It was easier than the first fight," said Akins after scoring a technical knockout over former champion Tony De Marco at 1:53 of the 12th round Tuesday night at Boston Garden.

Red Diamonds Win Coast Polo Tourney Here

Exciting polo matches marked the weekend at Desert Air Hotel with the playing of the 8-Goal Pacific Coast (South) tournament. Teams from Pomona, La Jolla and Desert Air taking part.

The Red Diamonds won the tournament, defeating La Jolla Sunday 5 to 4 in the final moments of an exciting game.

Saturday, the Red Diamonds defeated Desert Air 6-4 while La Jolla drew a bye.

In Saturday's game, Allen Shearer scored three for the Red Diamonds, Dick Walker 2, Ted Pierce one. Other player for the victors was Bill Mayberry. Bob Wininger and Bob Smith each scored 2 for Desert Air. Lisle Nixon and William Ties rounded out the Desert Air team.

Scherer scored three again Sunday, making the winning goal to break up a tie, in the last minute. Blaine Stephenson scored a pair, Dick Walker 1. Mayberry was the fourth member of the winning four. For La Jolla, Gale Medcott, Willis Allen, Todd Heiser and Don Howden scored one each.

Trophies for the winners were donated by Desert Air Hotel. More than 500 persons were in the gallery for Sunday's game.

ROBERTS Signs at Substantial Cut With Phillies
By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Robin Roberts took a $7,500 cut today without an argument or an alibi but with a definite understanding he can get that money back if he has a good year.

It was the second straight year the Phillies picked into a salary that once reached $50,000 and the 30-year-old right-hander readily said "we didn't agree this time" in the face of his 10-22 record last season, which was his worst ever.

Elsewhere around the baseball map, some of the boys were doing a little better in the pen-and-ink league.

TONY KUBEK, the American League's "rookie of the year" in 1957, signed his contract and returned it to the Yankees after they raised his salary.

Kubek batted .297 last season while playing left field, center field, shortstop, second and third base. He said it was immaterial to him where Casey Stengel decides to play him this year.

Right-hander Bob Rush, obtained by the Braves from the Cubs in a trade early last month, returned his contract to Milwaukee with a note saying, "I feel I can be an asset to your team."

Rush, who sent in his contract from his home in Mesa, Ariz., won six and lost 16 last season for Chicago.

The Braves also announced that outfielder Bill Bruton will report to spring training with the rest of the team at Bradenton, Fla. Bruton suffered a serious knee injury and was out of action the last part of the season but a bone specialist said the knee was "progressing" and the outfielder could undergo limited activity.

Lionel Hebert Winner in Indian Wells Tournament

Birdie on 18th Takes Pro-Am With 66 Total

Lionel Hebert took first blood in the week-long battle of leading pros which will cover three local courses before next Monday when he scored a 5-under-par 66 to win the Pro-Member 18-hole tournament at Indian Wells Country Club.

Hebert had to have a birdie as he reached the 18th hole and he got it to win.

Don Fairfield, Illinois, Ken Venturi, San Francisco, and Walter Burkemo, Michigan, had already finished, tied with 67's when Hebert came through.

THE TOURNAMENT was played as a benefit for the Palm Springs Boys' Club building fund and a neat sum was realized from gallery fees.

Hebert, who is from Lafayette, Louisiana, had a 33 on the first nine, three under par, and a 33, two under par, coming in.

He picked up $318 as result of his win.

FAIRFIELD, Venturi and Burkemo won $228 each.

Just back of the three ties for second with 68's were Eric Monti, Los Angeles, Dick Mayer, La Jolla, Jack Fief, Detroit, Gardner Dickinson, Panama City, Florida, Tom Nieporte, Cincinnati. They won $210 each.

Venturi was teamed with amateurs Lyle Cooper, Chauncey Needham and Glenn Doughty to win the Pro-Member event with a best-ball card of 54.

HIGGINS ACCEPTS AWARD
NEW YORK AP—Boston Red Sox manager Mike Higgins will accept the Sid Mercer award on behalf of Ted Williams at Sunday's annual dinner of the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers Assn.

The new problem for the city and the ball club arose Tuesday in a 25-page petition filed by Mrs. Therese Steffy, a Chavez Ravine property owner.

Mrs. Steffy asked the state Supreme Court to issue a writ of mandate barring a June 3 vote on a proposal to turn over a 300-acre site in Chavez Ravine for a Dodger stadium.

She contended in the petition that approval by the voters of the deal between the city and the Dodgers for the stadium site would jeopardize taxpayers' suits already filed.

The action charged that the city had not received enough in exchange for the 300-acre Chavez Ravine site which Mrs. Steffy claimed would be worth 12 million dollars if rezoned for commercial use.

She also held that the deal which turned half of possible oil revenue over to the Dodgers for a youth program was illegal because it permitted a private organization to control public funds. What's more, Mrs. Steffy said, the contract between the city and Dodgers did not require the ball club to stay in Los Angeles for any specified time.

Still another objection was raised in the action. It was claimed that the city did not have a right to sell Chavez Ravine property because it was obtained from the federal government with the understanding it would be used for public use.

Walter O'Malley, Dodger president, had hoped to start work right away on the 10 million dollar stadium. A citizens group forced a vote on the deal with the city by obtaining enough signatures for a referendum.

DODGERS FACING NEW CHAVEZ RAVINE FIGHT

LOS ANGELES AP—A legal move today offered a possible roadblock in the path of the Los Angeles Dodgers to Chavez Ravine and the team's proposed 50,000-seat stadium.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received up to 11:00 a.m. on March 3, 1958, by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside, State of California, at its office in the County Courthouse Building, in the City of Riverside, for the purchase of the following described bonds of PALM SPRINGS UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT of Riverside County, California, of the par value of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000). Each of said bonds will be dated April 1, 1958, and will bear interest at the rate not to exceed five per cent (5%) per annum, payable annually for the first year, and semi-annually thereafter on October 1 and April 1 in each year until maturity, 1958, is $2,805,000.

The said school district includes an area of approximately 304 square miles, and the estimated population of said school district is 15,254.

The bonds will be sold for cash only and at not less than par and accrued interest to the date of delivery. Each bid must state the bidder offers par and accrued interest to the date of delivery, and state accurately the premium, if any, offered for said bonds. Each bid shall be for the entire amount of interest limited to three, but no single bond shall bear more than one rate of interest. Further, the highest rate of interest shall not exceed by more than one per cent per annum the lowest rate of interest bid. All rates of interest specified shall be in multiples of one quarter of one per cent. At least one of the signatures on the bonds will be manually affixed.

A certified or cashier's check for a sum not less than three per cent (3%) of the amount of the bonds bid for, payable to the County of Riverside, must accompany every bid as a guarantee that the bidder, if successful, will accept and pay for the bonds described in the solicited bid in accordance with the terms of his bid and said check shall remain in the possession of the Board of Supervisors until all of said bonds are paid for, provided, however, that no such guarantee shall be required to accompany the bid of any state or federal agency. The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Palm Springs Unified School District has been acting as a school district under the laws of the State of California continuously since 1949.

By order of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside, adopted January 8, 1958.
C. A. PEQUEGNAT, County Clerk and ex officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors
By W. T. PASTY, Deputy

Converse Tells of Bonanza's Service Plans for Village

Edmund Converse, president of Bonanza Airlines, reported to day that service to Palm Springs would be inaugurated Friday with two daily round trips between Phoenix and Los Angeles.

Bonanza Airlines was awarded the Palm Springs stop in the service to Phoenix case, completed in late 1957; however, technical difficulties with the Civil Aeronautics Board of the terminology of serving the Indio-Coachella Valley area through the Palm Springs Airport held off the starting of service until this announced date.

CONVERSE POINTED out that the resort of Palm Springs would now receive a new terminal outlet through Phoenix for the first time, a very needed additional service to this city.

Even Lemons Have Their Own Headquarters Now

By JERRY KEATING
United Press Staff Correspondent
LOS ANGELES — 40 — Even lemons have a headquarters these days.

A large building off the freeway interchange in downtown Los Angeles serves as a communications nerve center for about 77 per cent of all lemons sold in the United States and Canada.

The lemon market, highly sensitive to weather, finds prices fluctuating as the thermometer goes up or down. Hot weather brings on a rush for lemons; cool weather chills the demand.

TO ADJUST SUPPLY to demand, a growers' cooperative, Sunkist Growers Inc., operates a teletype system that links the Los Angeles headquarters with sales offices in 35 cities. Another teletype line connects the headquarters building with 18 district exchanges in the producing areas. Thus, nearly instantaneous communication is possible with the entire organization.

Each of the major offices reports weather conditions, supply-demand relationships and opening market prices as early in the morning as possible.

OTHER SALES EXPERTS plan where the day's shipments are to go. In addition, the experts can divert a shipment of lemons already en route if the market changes suddenly.

The Sunkist cooperative, responsible for about 77 per cent of all lemon sales in North America, is owned and directed by farmers. They grow their crop on much of the 60,000 acres of highly-cultivated lemon grove land in California and Arizona. Two coastal counties of California, Ventura and Santa Barbara, account for approximately 60 per cent of all lemon production.

Rotary to Hear Lillian Roth

PALM DESERT — Singer Lillian Roth, author to the best selling book "I'll Cry Tomorrow," will discuss her literary effort at a Friday noon luncheon meeting of the Palm Desert Rotary Club.

Club members and their wives will attend the luncheon program, scheduled for the Shadow Mountain Club by Phil Franklin, program chairman.

Palm Desert businessman and singer Dick Kite will also be featured at the meeting.

The dragonfly is a creature of the air, never walking. Its legs are used for catching prey and as landing and perching gear.

Class Taking College Course Via Television Said Different Than Any Other in Country, Includes Four Killers, Three Robbers, Burglar, Forger

By WILEY MALONEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
SAN QUENTIN, Calif. 40 — The professor lectured on outer space and the students took notes.

There the resemblance ended between this and any other college class in the nation.

The class of 15 included four killers, three robbers, a burglar and a forger. But all were college students enrolled in San Francisco State College's television education courses.

HERE IN THE San Quentin Prison classroom it was Roy, Kermit, Bill, Curly, Duane, Doc, Charley, Rudolph — last names being forgotten. These men were numbers.

The faces were more mature than the average collegian, for the ages spanned 23 to 43. Clothing definitely were not Ivy League. Each wore blue denim shirts, open at the collar, and blue dungarees—the prison garb.

There was a difference, too, in the attitude of this class. It was always serious and attentive. Most of these men could be called "dangerous." Yet there was no guard in the classroom, not even an instructor. Only the television screen.

THE PRISON STUDENTS, themselves, are enthusiastic about the courses which cost the prison $17 per man per course—the same as "outside." The money comes from the prison's educational fund.

"This lecture we just heard is more than just an astronomy course," said the convict named Roy after the bell rang. "It is part of a general science course and includes mathematics, physics and chemistry. You're learning more than three or four things at once."

response course," said Doc. "We get a package of tests and can write in to ask questions during the course when we get stumped."

WE'RE GRADED on general knowledge of the work we've done and the critical thinking we can apply," said Charley.
